

2022 Gender Pay Gap Report

Under the Equality Act 2010 (Gender Pay Gap Information) Regulations 2017, we are legally required to publish, on an annual basis, specified information relating to our gender pay gap.

Gender pay gap is not the same as equal pay. Gender pay gap is the difference between the average pay of men and women, expressed as a percentage. The gap is calculated across the entire workforce of an organisation.

At Dardan there is a 5.9% mean gender pay gap in favour of women. Mean gap has decreased by 0.8% since last year.

Mean gender pay gap

Based on the mean (average) hourly rate of pay for male and female employees in the relevant pay period

Median gender pay gap

Based on the median (middle) hourly rate of pay for male and female employees in the relevant pay period

At Dardan there is a 2.0% median gender pay gap in favour of women. Median gap has decreased by 7.8% since last year.

Addressing the gender pay gap

- ▶ Although there is no gender pay gap in favour of men, we acknowledge the fact that we need to do more and are committed to reducing, and subsequently closing, any gender pay gap disparity here at Dardan.
- ▶ Our People Strategy continues to promote a positive culture, where staff feel engaged, valued and recognised.
- ▶ As part of Dardan's commitment to equality and diversity, we will continue to review recruitment advertising channels to ensure diversity of applicants and encourage salary negotiations by offering a salary range.
- ▶ Equality and diversity training will continue to be mandatory for all newly appointed managers.
- ▶ We will continue our mission in becoming the employer of choice, offering transparency, leadership and creating culture that promotes and values difference.
