Cookie Policy

Notice Statement

This Cookie Policy explains how Dardan Security Limited uses cookies and similar technologies on our website.

It should be read alongside our Privacy Policy, which explains how we use and protect personal data.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help websites function properly, improve user experience and provide information to the website owner.

Some cookies are essential for the website to operate. Others help us understand how visitors use the site or allow us to deliver relevant content and advertising.

Cookies may be set by us or by third parties whose services we use.

How We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- Ensure the website functions correctly
- Maintain security and prevent misuse
- Understand how visitors interact with our website
- Improve performance and user experience
- Support marketing and communication activity where applicable

We do not use cookies to collect sensitive personal information.

Types of Cookies We Use

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the operation and security of our website. They enable core functionality such as page navigation, security features and form submissions.

The website cannot function properly without these cookies. They do not require your consent.

Examples may include:

- Session management cookies
- Security and authentication cookies
- Load balancing cookies

Performance and Analytical Cookies

These cookies help us understand how visitors use our website. They allow us to analyse traffic, measure engagement and improve site performance.

These cookies collect aggregated information and do not directly identify individuals.

We may use services such as:

- Google Analytics
- Team Tailor

Analytics cookies are only set with your consent.

Functional Cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make, such as language preferences or form inputs, to provide a more personalised experience.

These cookies are only set with your consent where required.

Marketing and Advertising Cookies

If applicable, we may use cookies to measure the effectiveness of our marketing campaigns or to deliver relevant advertising through platforms such as:

- LinkedIn
- Google Ads

These cookies may track browsing behaviour across websites.

Marketing cookies are only set if you provide consent.

Third Party Cookies

Some cookies may be placed by third party providers whose services appear on our website. These providers may process your data in accordance with their own privacy policies.

We encourage you to review those policies where relevant.

How Long Are Cookies Stored

Cookies may be:

- Session cookies, which are deleted when you close your browser
- Persistent cookies, which remain on your device for a defined period or until you delete them

The retention period depends on the purpose of the cookie.

Managing Your Cookie Preferences

When you first visit our website, you will be presented with a cookie banner allowing you to:

- Accept all cookies
- Reject non essential cookies
- Customise your preferences

You can update your preferences at any time by clicking the “Cookie Settings” link in the website footer.

You can also manage cookies through your browser settings. Please note that blocking strictly necessary cookies may affect website functionality.

Lawful Basis

Under UK data protection law and the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR), we obtain consent before placing non essential cookies on your device.

Strictly necessary cookies are processed on the basis of legitimate interest in ensuring secure and effective website operation.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in technology, regulation or our practices. Any updates will be posted on this page with a revised “Last updated” date.
